

Whittlesea Women: Leading in Diversity

NEW AND EMERGING COMMUNITIES LEADERSHIP PROGRAM (NECLP)

A leadership program for women from New & Emerging Communities, in Melbourne's northern suburbs and nearby regional municipalities

The program features guest speakers, interactive activities and networking opportunities and provides a rich development experience with long-lasting benefits for participants and the community.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

- Develop your leadership skills and confidence
- Grow your network in government, business and community sectors
- Make the most of your leadership journey with a diverse group of women committed to making a difference

“Since I graduated from NECLP, I have built a very strong network and very good connections top leaders from other communities and their organisations. I have been empowered and more confident to empower the community, especially the most vulnerable and isolated community members, and support them to have a sense of belonging to the wider community.”

SHABNAM DALIRI

“This program is so amazing and I would recommend it to people who want to do something new, challenge themselves and build up strong leadership skills.”

“It was such an empowering experience for us women. Leadership Victoria created an environment for women from different cultures to engage in meaningful discussions and make meaningful connections. My eyes were opened to what other women in other cultures struggle with. It was a truly memorable time and I am a better person and a leader because of this experience.”
